Future editions of the Berkmar Brief will be sent via email and posted on the Berkmar High School's homepage. In order to continue receiving your copy, please make sure we have your current email address. We look forward to continuing this vital means of communication.

Parent Portal Update!

Beginning in January 2010, parents of students in Gwinnett County schools will be able to view their child's daily attendance and classroom grades. In order to take advantage of this tool, you must complete the form found on the Berkmar website and return it to Kim King in the front office. You will be required to show identification when you turn in the form.
